

BIOGRAPHY

Claudia Rohrbach / Soprano

Born in Offenbach, Claudia Rohrbach completed her "Abitur" at the Bettina-School in Frankfurt/Main while attending music school there.

She then studied history and sociology at Frankfurt's Goethe-University while taking classes in piano and voice at the Dr.Hoch Conservatory.

In 1991, the artist transferred to the Richard Strauss-Conservatory in Munich. She was awarded a scholarship by the German Stage Association in 1994 and received a First Prize from the Gasteig Cultural Circle.

She started her career in 1995 at the Vogtland-Theater in Plauen and moved from there to Lucerne Opera in 1996.

She has been a member of the ensemble at the Cologne Opera since the Fall of 1998; guest contract at the Opera Bonn and with the Bregenz Festival 2005.

In addition to her work in opera, the young artist has a successful concert career, appearing in such concert halls as the Tonhalle in Zurich, the Munich Philharmonic at Gasteig, the Alte Oper in Frankfurt and the Konzerthaus in Berlin.
